Coast Guard To The Rescue

Two small craft owned by Torrance area boatmen were towed to safety by the Coast Guard Sunday after break-downs at sea.

The Salty Dog, owned by Roland Rogers, 4115 Torrance boulevard, who with three others was aboard the craft, was found adrift off Long Point, Catalina Island, and was towed to the harbor.

An 18-foot boat operated by R. Edwards, 2581 Oak street, was found disabled near the harbor entrance.

Both rescue jobs were handled by the same patrol boat.

About 95 percent of Indiana's farm land is under cultivation.

Whistles Jar Citizen Doe To Polls, Phones

Shrill whistles, deep-throated ones, little ones, big ones, all joined in Tuesday in an unusual "singing commercial" reminding the residents of Torrance to vote in the State primary election.

The whistles and sirens sounded their call to ballots at 7 a.m., noon, and 5 p.m.

Instigator of the local stunt was Ed Karlow, chairman of the blow-the-whistles-to-get-out-the-vote committee of the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Sounding off were the tooters of the National Supply Company, Torrance Laundry, Torrance Fire Department, General Petroleum, Columbia Steel, Longren Aircraft, North American Aircraft, D. and M. Machine Works and Ideco.

Police Chief John Stroh said the stunt may have packed the polling booths, but it also packed the switchboards with calls from frightened and curious citizens.

"Sounding of the sirens and whistles has always been associated with the sounding of an alarm of a disaster.

Burpo Infant Rites Conducted

Jackie Ray Burpo, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Burpo, of 1456 1/2 West 220th street, who died a few hours after birth, was buried yesterday.
